

ALL OF THEM BUSY

POLITICAL CLANS ARE GATHERING AT THE HOTELS.

Five Candidates Have Opened Headquarters and are Working With Their Friends—There is an Air of Business and Diplomacy About Them That Shows They are in the Race for Blood-All of Them are Grand Men and Regret is Felt That All Cannot be Honored With the Privilege of Nominating Next President.

The Republican clans began to gather in Wichita yesterday and by last night there was a goodly number of the brainy men of the state in the city. There were some in each of the two large hotels and all of them were making medicine with a vim.

Of the candidates for district delegates Mr. Irish of Sterling was the first to arrive and opened up his headquarters at the Carey. Mr. Irish is a most excellent gentleman of a quiet and genial disposition and is well versed in all the political and material affairs of the state.

Clark Conkling of the Lyons Republican came down with him but had to return home in the afternoon owing to sickness in his family but will return again tomorrow morning.

Among the early arrivals also was Mr. McCulloch of Anthony who is the pride of Harper county Republicanism for his loyalty to his party. Mr. McCulloch is a splendid man and he is making friends of friends among the delegates.

Mr. Harry Bone had his headquarters at the Carey open early and he was visited by hosts of people. Harry goes around the hotel with a most genial smile and an air of confidence that indicates he is all right.

Among the happiest looking candidates at the Carey was Frank Vincent of Hutchinson. Whoever thinks that the mayor of the salt city is not a clever politician is greatly mistaken. He has a man interested in him mightily quick and he always makes a good impression. He is very popular with his own people who are down here working like niggers in his interest.

Mike Sutton came in from Dodge City in the afternoon and opened up headquarters at the Manhattan where a stream of friends and admirers, including a great many old army comrades, followed him. Mr. Sutton has a splendid faculty of making friends and since he has been at the Manhattan he has done a great deal of valuable work. Mike has a rattling big heart and that always counts.

All the candidates are splendid men but, of course, only two of them can be elected. It is a pity that the Seventh district is not allowed five delegates so that all of them could be honored by being elected to represent the grand old Seventh at St. Louis.

J. W. Dobson was around early among the boys. He is friendly to all of them and all of them are friendly to him.

Speaker Lobdell came in on the 5 o'clock train and after shaking hands with about 100 statesmen he combed his hair, went to his room and immediately commenced to make medicine. When Charlie goes into the fight for a friend he gets in his best looks and makes every one of them count.

At 7 o'clock Will Morgan came in from Hutchinson after putting in a hard day's work on his bright paper the Daily News. He immediately threw off his coat and proceeded to tell his friends what a grand good fellow Frank Vincent is. Will is young, full of enthusiasm and is desperately in earnest when he has a friend to work for.

Andy Richards shot into the Carey like a cannon ball when his train arrived from Wellington and after writing what nobody but himself would recognize as his name on the register he proceeded to button hole and caucus in the interest of Harry Bone.

Lute Axline, editor of the Medicine Lodge Cresset was also on the Santa Fe from the south. He is the secretary of the congressional committee and very naturally he could not get far into the hotel when some politician called him. Lute will be the busiest man in the city for the next two days.

Bob McCane came over from Edwards county early in the morning. It was not hard to tell who Bob was for. He peeled off his coat upon his arrival and proceeded to work for Mike Sutton and Frank Vincent.

John Vincent of Hutchinson was also an early arrival and helped the chief executive of his city to grapple with his friends to their hearts with hooks of steel. John is a mighty good man when enlisted in the cause of a friend.

J. C. Nicholson came down from Newton on the 5 o'clock train. Mr. Nicholson is candidate for alternate to the St. Louis convention and it is generally conceded that he will get the place.

Late last night Secretary Axline had returned from about half the counties of the district and the following are the delegates certified to:

TALKS ABOUT CATTLE ONLY

Will Bolton has No Turn About Politics, But is Booming a Convention.

One of the busy people at the Carey last night was Will Bolton of Woodward, and he was not talking politics, either. He was talking about the coming live stock convention to be held in Woodward March 15.

"All stockmen," said he, "in south-western Kansas are invited to meet with the stockmen of Oklahoma at the annual convention at Woodward on the above date.

"The recent action of Secretary Morton in restoring the quarantine line is giving huge satisfaction to the Oklahomans and the organization of the cattle-men to protect the line, as well as the promotion of other interests in common with the cattle-men of Oklahoma."

The following letter from Governor Reinfrow to Secretary Morton secured the courted restoration of the quarantine line to the limits of last season and is as follows:

"Dear Sir: Your esteemed favor of January 31, with enclosures received and duly considered. In reply I beg to state that I regret very much that you did not come with me concerning the quarantine line, and I am glad to have your order of enforcing the quarantine regulations and protecting the line as heretofore established within this territory, before removing the same to the southern boundary of the state of Kansas, and affording an opportunity to demonstrate to you my willingness and ability to protect the line as established and shown on the map issued from your department in the year 1885.

The removal of this line as made in your order of January 27, 1895, works a great hardship and injury upon the principal industry of a number of the western counties of this territory. As evidence of this fact I beg to enclose herewith a petition signed by a number of the stockmen in the counties affected by this order, and also a letter of Mr. William E. Bolton, editor of the 'Live Stock Inspector,' published at Woodward, Oklahoma, and commend to your careful consideration the statements of Mr. Bolton as being reliable and trustworthy. I also enclose herewith certified copy of house bill No. 148, the same being chapter 30 of the session laws of Oklahoma for 1895, prescribing the powers and duties of the various officers of this territory having the enforcing of the provisions of said act.

"If you will restore the quarantine line of 1885, I promise to use all the power at my command to faithfully protect such quarantine line and rigidly enforce all rules prescribed by your department relating thereto. You will observe the penalties prescribed in sections 11, 19 and 21, for violation of the quarantine provisions made in pursuance of said act.

"With this guarantee on my part I think that you can safely re-establish this line within the territory as established in 1885, and I sincerely hope that you will be pleased to do so. Again assuring you of my hearty co-operation in the enforcement of all the rules and regulations that may be prescribed by your department in the protection of such line."

"The following is the quarantine line of 1885, which has been restored by the recent order:

"Commencing at a point where the south line of Arkansas crosses the Arkansas river, thence south along the meanders of the river to the north line of the Ponca reservation, thence west to the northwest corner of the Ponca reservation, thence south to the northwest corner of Noble county, thence south along the line of Noble county to the southwest corner of said county, thence west to the northwest corner of Logan county, thence south to the southeast corner of Kingfisher county, thence west to the northwest corner of Canadian county, thence south to a point where the west line of Canadian county intersects the Canadian river, thence west to the southwest corner of Blaine county, thence south to the southeast corner of Washita and Roger Mills counties to a point where the south line of Roger Mills county intersects the north fork of Red river, thence south along said river to its confluence with Red river, thence westward along Red river."

According to a preacher on the streets yesterday, the Savior will arrive in Wichita on the morning of April 20, 1896. He is expected to be a little over, but it will be before Jerry Simpson is made governor.

KICKING ON CAESAR

TWO FARMERS OBJECT TO THE DECREE OF A DEAD RULER.

They Declare They are American Citizens and Object to Being Forced to Recede the Decree of Julius Caesar—Their Wives, Who are Sisters, Each Present Their Husbands With a Boy Baby on Saturday, Feb. 29, 1896, and According to the Rule the Kids Will be Eight Years Old Before They Have a Birthday.

George Hampton of Waco township and Frank Brown of Park township were in the city yesterday and both on the same errand. The two men married sisters, and the two sisters each presented their husbands with a bouncing boy baby. There was rejoicing, smoking, congratulations and so forth, concerning the two children, until the two families accidentally discovered that these two children would be eight years of age before they would have a birthday—the children being born on Saturday, February 29, and there will be no more February 29 until the 1904.

They thought the thing was a joke but they left the question to a number of well known educators, who after looking up a lot of history and other data gave the two brother-in-laws the following brief setting out the reasons why their children would be eight years old before they would have a birthday:

"The occasional addition of a day to February in what is called leap years, and the interruption of the regular recurrence of this addition, are alike due to the circumstance that the year (the period of the earth's revolution round the sun, say from equinox to equinox) does not consist of an exact number of days. The calendar as reformed by Julius Caesar nearly 1900 centuries ago made the year consist of 365 1/4 days, the odd six hours being gathered up, and at the end of every four years, and then added as a day to February. But the actual length of the year is 365 days 5 hours 48 minutes and about 46 seconds, and the year of the Julian calendar was thus nearly 11 1/4 minutes too long—an error amounting to day in about 128 years."

"In the year 325 the Council of Nice determined the date of Easter as the Sunday on or coming next after the 14th of March, the time of the spring equinox. But as time went on the error of 11 1/4 minutes was throwing the equinox, as determined by astronomers, gradually back, till by the sixteenth century it came to the 11th of March. This led to a reform under the direction of Pope Gregory XIII, resulting in what has been named from him the Gregorian calendar; that is now in universal use except in Russia."

"To bring the astronomical and ecclesiastical modes of reckoning time into approximate agreement, it was determined, as the discrepancy amounted to very little more than three days in 400 years, to drop three of the leap year additional days in four centuries; and, naturally, the years selected were what may be called the century or two-hundred years of Gregory accordingly gave orders, by a decree issued in 1582, that February should have 29 days in the years 1600, 2000, 2400, etc., but only 28 in the intermediate years."

"Thus it happens that 1500 was not a leap year, and 1900 will not be. The year is still some twenty-six seconds too long, after this adjustment; but, as that does not amount to quite a day in 3,600 years, it does not greatly concern us. Pope Gregory further decreed, in order to bring the equinox back to March 21, that the day following October 4, 1582, should be October 15, and by an act of the British parliament, the day following September 2, 1752, was declared to be October 14. This is what is known as the change from the 'Old Style' to the 'New Style.'"

"The boys were not happy, but they went home with the hope in their breast that their wives would understand the typewritten explanation, but they thought they would call March 1, their boys' birthday until 1904, when they would drop back a day."

In speaking of the case to an Eagle reporter Frank said: "It's powerful strange how Julius Caesar or anybody else can keep a kid from having a birthday party every twelve months. That is as bad as Grover Cleveland trying to make the Democratic party do what he wants, instead of him obeying the instructions of his party."

GROVER IS PRAISED

JUDGE PITZER REFUSES AN INVITATION TO ROAST HIM.

He Says That Grover's Administration has Been a Great Agency in Building Up the Republican Party of the Territory—Hundreds of Democrats Renouncing Their Allegiance to the Stuffed Prophet of Wall Street and His Party—Flynn Will be Renominated and Dille Will Go to St. Louis—Other Oklahoma Gossip.

Hon. John Pitzer, president of the Oklahoma council was in the city yesterday and his mouth fairly watered to see his old Kansas friends making medicine in politics. He looked as if he would be willing to sacrifice his residence and high station in Oklahoma if he could participate in it.

Judge Pitzer was solicited for an interview on half a dozen subjects and upon being tendered full swing to roast Grover Cleveland for his utterances at the Presbyterian assembly in New York he said:

"You can't get me to roast Grover Cleveland under any circumstances. Grover has proved himself to be a blessing to the Republican party in Oklahoma."

The Eagle reporter was shocked to hear that Grover was a blessing to anything at this side of the shores of England with the exception of Wall street whereupon Mr. Pitzer said, "you seem to be surprised. I reiterate every statement I have made. Grover's action with Oklahoma and his attitude towards Oklahoma has been such as to make it a Republican stronghold as long as the memory of his administration lives with the people. He has not only served to strengthen Republicans in their political faith but his administration in the territory has so disgusted decent Democrats that they out Herod Herod in their opposition to everything that smells of Democracy. The strong east Texas Democrats in our country have renounced their allegiance to the party and have come out boldly for the Republican party. You would actually be astonished to observe the number and high character of the converts Clevelandism is making for the Republican party in the territory."

"Yes, Dennis Flynn will undoubtedly be renominated for Congressman of the territory to congress and, of course, elected. He is regarded as the logical candidate at the present time. He makes a splendid representative and there is no reason why he should be shelved."

"Canadian county has an eye open to the St. Louis convention. John L. Dille is our favorite. We want him to go to St. Louis because he will have weight and prestige in the convention. No, that is not all we want by any means. Judge Burford's term will expire in a very short time and if he is not re-appointed Canadian county will have a good man for the place. If you fellows think that we have no good timber to fill any vacant federal position you are very much mistaken. If Judge Burford is not re-appointed you want to keep your eye on Canadian county."

"Yes, Pat Nagle's appointment is all right. It gives splendid satisfaction to the people of Oklahoma. His appointment of deputies has also given satisfaction. Pat is a fine Irishman, isn't he? By the way he is also a fine lawyer and as white a man as there is in the territory. When he tore up the commission of Lumpkin a few days ago for being drunk he did something that will be applauded all over Oklahoma by good people regardless of politics."

"Yes, that was a fine stroke of policy. Policy, fudge. Pat Nagle no more thought of the policy of the affair than you did. He is not that kind of a fellow. He would do the same thing with his best friend. He is simply a high minded, decent fellow, who does not want any man about him if he can help it, who will bring disgrace on his administration. He is a very trying position and as he means to do right everybody in Oklahoma regardless of politics hopes that he will succeed."

"I am not talking for an interview, now, but all of us Republicans down in Oklahoma are watching your convention here with interest. We want to see Marsh Murdock go to St. Louis as a delegate-at-large. He would not only help Kansas there but the Republic of Oklahoma know that he would help them. We all look upon the Eagle as our friend and it has done more towards helping us Republicans in Oklahoma to win our rights than any other agency that I can name at present. It has exerted a powerful influence in building up our organization in the territory. Send me a dispatch if he is elected."
